Welcome to Georgia!

Whether you're visiting or you're here to stay, I'm glad you've chosen to come to Georgia, where we're putting dreams in motion every day. Georgia has a rich history, a bold spirit and our southern hospitality is unmatched.

I hope you'll take advantage of Georgia's expansive travel opportunities. You may choose to explore the urban landscape of Atlanta, experience the history of Georgia's Civil War sites and the civil rights movement, or relax in the natural beauty of the North Georgia Mountains or our pristine shoreline.

Whatever purpose brought you to Georgia, I'm confident that you will find even more reasons to come back and visit again.
